

OBEDIENCE SEMINAR - Avoiding Handler Errors

"It wasn't the dog's fault it was handler error"

With Speaker: CKC Obedience Judge Norma Schaffer

March 16, 2008 11am - 3pm

820 Crestline Road, Kamloops BC

4 hour talk with demonstrations on:

Common mistakes made in the ring AND how to avoid them.

* This seminar will cover the Novice, Open & Utility levels. *

That $\frac{1}{2}$ point may be costing you a QS, a High in Class or even the coveted HIT!
Do your dog a favour, learn how to avoid those costly errors and improve YOUR performance by attending this event.

Pre-registration $25 per person * At the door $30 per person

Dogs are not required.

If you must bring your dogs, only quiet crated dogs will be welcome in the building.

* Please bring your own lawnchair. *

Complimentary beverages & light snacks included.

This event is proudly hosted by the Dogwood Boxer Club

Info: Sandra Beck 250-955-0549 boxerhug@hotmail.com

Directions to Seminar:

Starting on Hwy 5 turn west onto Halston Ave (the lights @ the Husky station 2.5 km N of Hwy 1)
Halston Ave becomes Parkcrest Ave, follow Parkcrest to Singh Street, turn left onto Singh Street.
Follow Singh Street to Tranquille Road, turn right onto Tranquille Road then right onto Crestline.

Please mail pre-registration form along with remittance

(payable to Dogwood Boxer Club) to:

Sandra Beck PO Box 1128, Chase BC V0E-1M0

Pre-Registration deadline March 5, 2008

Name:

Address:

Phone:

E-mail:

Confirmation will be sent via e-mail unless otherwise requested.